1. On April 1, 2006 Cato Zegarra and Solo Entertainment present another sensational salsa dancing event at the Hyatt on Capitol Hill (400 New Jersey Ave., NW. Washington, DC. As we all know the I love Salsa Concert was not only a blast but, one of the greatest salsa dancing shows here in Washington, DC. I mean, we are dancing salsa just two blocks from Capitol Hill. These things have a lot of meaning to salseros like me that are passionate about our music. It also has a lot of meaning about person organizing the event. Cato Zegarra is one the pioneers here in DC. Back in the old days Cato would advocate and promote the music to his Peruvian friends and thus promote the former Chelsea's of Georgetown. Before the CD days Cato would buy vinyl LPs and take them to be played at Chelsea's.

Thursday, March 23rd-

Ladies are FREE UNTIL 10PM at South Beach in Bethesda THIS THURSDAY ONLY! Find any excuse to get out of the house ladies and come join us for Sizzling, Sexy, Salsa at South Beach Restaurant and Bar in Bethesda! Never been? Come and check out the large, spacious wood floor and Miami style decor. It's the hottest place to be on a Thursday- guaranteed! Salsa Classes from 8- 9:30pm (Beginner Salsa AND Special Ladies' Styling class), followed by new music by DJ Mike "El Sonero" Morales. $5 cover, $10 with class. Dress to Impress! For more info, please contact Michelle Reyes at (301) 237-3354. South Beach Restaurant and Bar 7904 Woodmont Ave. Bethesda, MD 20814 301-718-9737

He was aggressive and wanted salsa to grow in city. Thereafter, Cato started organizing his own events throughout the city. This had adverse effect on Cato because the owners and managers at Chelsea's banned him from the now defunct Georgetown venue. Today Cato is still doing what he loves to do, standing straight, and looking good while those the banned him are just a footnote of history in our salsa community.

Just for the record, VIP tickets are almost all sold-out. I don't have tickets to sell. And there's a lot of interest in this event.
