

060906. iSam a Personal Message to All DC Salseros

Like everyday we are blessed to enjoy the wonders of our creator all mighty, it feels so good to enjoy a like this one. As this week continues to move forward it's important to pause for a minute and in the notion of prayers say thanks to our almighty and as a humble dc salsero recognize the fact that we are a community that works, socializes, exists, and continues to grow.

The fact that the Washington Post recognizes our movement is also worth recognizing and thanking them. To the reporters of the Washington Post, this Boricua is humble and grateful...gracias un millon. To all the local DC: salseros, dancers, djs, instructors, web developers, musicians, writers, photographers, and promoters...etc. Without all of you DC Salsa would never be what it is today and what it will be in the future.

Washington, DC as the place that houses our nation's main institutions and leaders is also an optimum place to host first rate live salsa events, international salsa dancing forums, conventions, and for sure congresses.

We would have never gotten to this point if it had not been for the community we have, so for that and other issues I also say Gracias mis respetos y agradecimiento without you we wood have never made it this far. So to night I wish everyone going to Zanzibar to celebrate as a community.

Featured Artists: Hector Tricoche, Orquesta Broadway, Herman Olivera, Charansalsa, Chino Nunez, DJ Andy, and DJ Frank Robles. All this for $20.00. Only in New York City. For bigger version of this flyer visit: <http://www.samrodriguez.com>

The weather is nice, the occasion is perfect, and the venue is so familiar to us. I also want recognize those that have recognized our local talent and today is also the day for us a community to say Gracias to them.

Lastly, to all the men please give the gentleman at men's restroom an extra tip. That man is so attentive to our image needs for all these year.

To all the visiting salseros coming from other places. Welcome to Washington, DC. I hope everyone enjoys the 2nd Washington DC Salsa Congress. Two years ago at the start of this vision I was as I'm today...forward-thinking and supportive. And I hope that the DC Congress will continue to grow in the years to come. For further info <http://www.CapitalCongress.com>

I have added a demo MP3 mix of Puerto Rican Theme songs that DJ Andy will be playing this weekend at Carribbean Breeze in Arlington, Virginia and the WildPalm in The Bronx, New York. To hear this demo click the following: <http://www.>
