The DC Salsa Network is continuing its scholarship fundraiser/drive with a special event tonight from 7:00-9:30pm, at Habana Village, 1834 Columbia Road, N.W. Washington, D.C. A $10 donation is requested but feel free to donate what you can. The proceeds will be used toward the Network's scholarship program. Each year the Network awards college scholarships to deserving students that have been accepted into an institution of higher learning beginning in the fall of that year. This year, we hope to award at least seven (7) scholarships of at least $500 each to deserving students. Refreshments will be provided and there will be music for dancing. The Salsa Network consist of: Salsa Promoters, Instructors, promoters, DJ's, individuals with large email list, web pages, and those interested in promoting salsa in the Washington, D.C. salsa community. They meet on the first Sunday of each month to: discuss member's projects, the state of salsa, in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area, solve problems and conflicts, and to share information about each others projects.

For help or consulting in planning a private or a public function or the planning of an event involving entertainment from DJs, to live bands or dancing workshops for men or women. Please send me an email at samrodriguez@msn.com; perhaps we can help. We have the hardware, software, and humanware to make things happen.

If you receive this email perhaps you have received emails from us in the past regarding Latin entertainment, salsa music and dancing, or perhaps you have expressed an interest in the subject. If you are still interested then keep reading, if not please let me know and we will remove you from our mailing list.

This and all emails we send are focused on informing you about entertainment. I take sending emails seriously and invite you to join us. I can be reached at 202.246.9167.

Sincerely, **Sam Rodriguez**
