Sam O'Brian Rodriguez (21)

I am so proud of my O'Brian he enlisted in the United States Marine Corp. For me it has been an journey of love for him. I am so proud of him. Young Americans that make that vital decision to put their life on the line for our country especially now when we are engaging enemies all over the world deserve the outmost respect and support. A lot people want become and take for granted being a US Citizens yet when it comes time to put your life in harms way are the first to duck and pass-on the hot potato. The words of General McArthur apply today Duty - Honor - Country. A great nation needs courageous citizens to remain strong and great place to live and work. Check out this video clip of him taking his oath of enlistment on July 2nd, 2006. Click here.

6. An On2 Salsa Joke

One salsa diva organizes organizes an On2 dance troupe for a performance dancing presentations.

The organizer wants to buy expensive costumes and her best friend is an unemployed popular salsera that dances good.

The Organizer first charges the dance members 25% more for the outfits so she doesn't have to pay for her own costume at all. She also invites her best friend to practice with the group knowing what she's going to do later.

On the day before the big presentation the organizer tells dancer "Z" that she is not going to dance because she's not ready but tells her to bring the costume to the presentation anyway in case the organizer is changes her mind. The organizer also tells her best friend not to worry she will dance on the presentation because all is under control.

At the last and final practice night after the long rehearsal dancer Z catches on to the diva's scheme. So dancer Z unsowed the bottom panty part of the costume and re-sewed it lightly with an extremely low grade string.

On the day of the performance dancer Z brings the costumes, the organizer tells dancer Z that for the greatness of the group and for all the hard of all the members it would be her duty to allow the her best friend to perform instead. The organizer passes the outfit to her best friend and everything is moving excellent just as planned. The venue is packed and camcorders were all rolling.

So when the diva and her best friend do the spread-squat - ECUAJEI - CHEESE - FLASH - BUYA...another kodak and most-watched video moment for the world to see and for free.

Gosh, I love salsa.
