2) MAMBO-INN.COM

I want to send shout-outs to the editors of Mambo-Inn.com webpage in Lima, Peru. For those privileged to speak Spanish, please visit the page. In my opinion, it is one of the best Spanish-language salsa-related webpage in the world. The organizers are truly salsa connoisseurs. In the past few months they also formed a forum that is visited by Peruvians from all over the world, and recently boricuas haven gotten wind of it and starting to post. <http://www.mambo-inn.com>

The organizers of Mambo-Inn.com have also formed a cultural association (Asociacion Cultural EnClave), through which they want to develop salsa music shows, workshops, collectors meet-ups, video conferences, etc. In essence they want to do quality events that truly meet hardcore salseros tastes. They want to take salsa initiatives in Lima in their own hands.

Not that they dont get their salsa fix. Last weekend Callao hosted the 10th Chimpun Callao Salsa Festival with Tito Nieves, Ismael Miranda, Willie Colon, Dan Den, Camagey, Antonio Cartagena and Clase Juvenil. And next week, the city of San Luis will host El Gran Combo de Puerto Rico and La Sonora Poncena.

And if you are a salsa lover visiting Peru, but you don't know where to go, there are tour guides who specialize in salsa and will show you the best salsa clubs in Lima. And to top that, they have salsa taxis. It's a newly opened transportation company that only plays salsa in their cars and their cabbies are prepared to answer salsa related questions. Are Peruvian salsa crazy or what?

3) 31st SALSA FESTIVAL AT THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN 9/16/06

We are set to go to the 31st Salsa Festival at the Garden. Wind, rain, snow, whatever, we are going. This year, the shows will honor Hector Lavoe. Isidro Infante will lead the NY Salsa Orchestra for a night of salsa over-doses. In the line-up: Willie Colón, Tito Rojas, Lalo Rodríguez, Cano Estremera, Domingo Quinones, Jos el Canario Alberto, Eddie Santiago, Cheo Feliciano, Andy Montañez, Ismael Miranda, Tito Nieves, Tony Vega, Michael Stuart and Yomo Toro.

This is worth going to NYC. I ain't missing this one.

4) EILEEN TORRES TRIBUTE TO LARRY HARLOW DECEMBER 2

Friday, December 2, 2006 Eileen organizes a Tribute To Larry Harlow featuring staged dance production of La Raza Latina-A Salsa Suite & Dancing to Latin Legends Band-Duke Ellington School of the Arts. Larry is one of the original members of La Fania and one of the best salsa pianists you will get to hear. Thank you Eileen for putting this together.

5) ON2 "Sandals"

This On2 salsa dancer (Studie) shows up at a venue with his dancing shoes and towel inside his new tootie gym bag and his new sandals he got through Craigslist. Immediately upon arriving his acquaintance (Jerry) says: hey Studie what's up with those hot sandals?

Studie: yeah...I got 'em when I went to the west coast salsa congress.

Jerry: Sweet....

Studie: I got tell you my toes are killing though so much dancing these days.

Jerry: I know...listen...I was at the Puerto Rico Congress...so the fabulous guys to me to a pub in Old San Juan...Oh my goodness...it was like family...so much love for salsa, friendliness, very discreet, gorgeous bartenders, slamming music, and of course incredible On2 men-on-men dancers.

Studie: (starts taking off his sandals and start massaging his feet and notices some itchy dandruff on his right pinky toe so he scratches it off with his right hand. When he's done...he takes a quick sniff just to make sure nothing is wrong). Hey, Jerry are ready to dance with these scants?

Jerry: Don't remind me...gosh!...I miss Old San Juan.

Studie: Come-on straighten out you don't want everyone to notice. (Studie stretches out his right hand and yells) Diva! want to dance?

Diva: Sure, Hey I saw you when you came in, where did you get those sandals?

Studie: At a place when I went to the LA Salsa Congress.

Diva: Wow...you're so fab.

Studie: (Studie thinks to himself and tells himself..."whoe I dance better than you with or without highheels") You know me I go all over the world and going to England next. Okay, lets dance.

Diva: Don't forget I got a dance group.

Studie: (Studie thinks to himself and tells himself..."WHATEVVA!") Your such a great dancer.

All New Progressive Beginner Salsa Workshop taught by Susan Leiter

No Partner Necessary! This is a workshop for beginners that keeps the classes closer together for a concentration on patterns and techniques. The classes will be held for 4 Sundays. They are September 10 and 24; October 1 and 8. They will be from 1:30 - 3:00pm.

In the first class we will cover all the basic elements (or puzzle pieces) continuing with the following 3 classes learning basic combinations, leading/following techniques, timing and rhythm. When you complete this workshop you will be able to get out and dance Salsa!

The cost for all 4 weeks (that's 6 hours of instruction) is $60 with preregistration. You may find out how to preregister by emailing Susan at spleiter@aol.com. It's important to preregister so tabs can be kept on the ratio. The last day for the preregistration fee is Sunday, September 3. For all those who miss the preregistration date the fee will be $80.

If you're interested, don't wait to let her know! That's how people wound up on a waiting list from the previous workshop. There are only 40 spaces open (20 leaders/20 followers). Avalon Dance Studio 15 Mellor Ave Catonsville, MD. Plenty of free parking in their lot.
