

Something for all on this special Columbus Day Holiday and Daylight Savings Time weekend nearly two years of silence and inactivity I'm resuming my Salsa Alert emails. This alert will focus on the following:

1. Frankie Vasquez and Los Soneros Del Barrio
2. Aventura Pura Bachata at CocoCabana, Maryland
3. Columbus Day Weekend Salsa Party at CocoCabana
4. Salsa Sundays
5. Social Dance in Howard County, Maryland

1) Attached is a jpg file about Frankie Vazquez. If you know Spanish good enough to understand salsa lyrics this is one band you do not want to miss. Frankie Vazquez is the man who has sang on recordings from Conjunto Libre through Spanish Harlem Orchestra. He's old-school salsa singer patriot. For sure respected by New York's finest salsa community for staying true to the genre. If you are new in salsa for sure you need to squeeze yourself into VIP to see this fantastic singer. If you like Spanish Harlem Orchestra, Frankie is one of the vocalists. If you can only like to dance to CD music or DJs, don't waist your time. This is pure hardcore salsa at its best. Old school songs with aggressive masacote beat. Soneros del Barrio at VIP, Friday 10th 2003. Must See Salsa!

Special Message to all Cocolos: Frankie Vazquez es puro de la mata, sonero encendio. Curate bien antes de llegar al baile pa' que gozes un monton con los soneros del barrio.

2) Attached is a jpg flyer for Aventura, this Friday 10th 2003 at CocoCaban. Pura bachata and International Music. Aventura is today one of the most popular groups of new techno bachata generation music. All is set for this great Latin community music grand opening party.

The theme is Fall Fiesta, and we will probably emphasize Latin Dance music the lesson from 8 - 9 before the dance will be one of the Latin dances.
